JACKSON, MO., AUGUST 8, 1901.

If legal publications are to be let to the lowest bidder, we can bid as low as anyone. Try us.

It must be a pleasure to be a republican city office holder in Cape Girardeau, and receive such compliments as a certain paper gives them.

If a man wants to wear laurels and be held high in the estimation of the community let him hold the office of city councilman, city alderman or school director. Men in these offices get little or no pay, do the best they can for their constituents, and then the approbation of the people—nit.

SOME wrong impressions have gone out concerning our town. Jackson is as good a town morally and otherwise as any town in the state, Cape Girardeau not excepted, and Cape Girardeau is a good town. We have as many good people and as few bad people in Jackson as has anybody's town, no matter where located.

The Messenger, in time past, was of the wild-eyed, free silver type, and believes to-day that the white metal should be a redemption money. But the conditions are such that it will take a commercial revolution to bring it about. The business world has adjusted itself on the gold standard basis, and as long as the new gold fields continue to pour their wealth into the lap of the world, which seems indefinite, it will so continue. There is no rubbing this out. Taking this view of the case it is useless for the democratic party to contend for a proposition that has been twice defeated by the American people, the last time more pronounced than the first one. The Ohio democrats have spoken upon this issue and their example will be followed by a large proportion of the democratic states in the union. Business conditions and commercial transactions have so adjusted themselves to the gold standard that the silver issue has been eliminated to the dead past. The democratic party realizes this and as a progressive party cannot afford to hug its dead idols to its breast and mourn over them. It has a higher destiny and more momentous issues to meet.—Dexter Messenger.

Many of our free silver democratic exchanges are severely criticised Brother Watkins, but before this time next year all the free silver advocates will see it just as the Messenger sees it. Even the Cash-Book will be in line.

Mark Twain Declines.

Mark Twain, otherwise Samuel L. Clemens, was invited to speak at the Missouri day celebration on August 10, but he was compelled to decline the invitation on account of previous engagements. In his letter declining the invitation he has this in part to say:

"The whole science of things is turned wrong end to. Life should begin with age and its privileges and accumulations, and end with youth and its capacity to splendidly enjoy such advantages. As things are now, when in youth a dollar would bring you a hundred pleasures, you can't get it; when you are old you get it and there is nothing worth buying with it then. It's an epitome of life. The first half of it consists of the capacity to enjoy, without the chance, and the last half consists of the chance without the capacity.

"I am admonished in many ways that time is pushing me inexorably along. I am approaching the threshold of age; in 1977 I shall be 142. This is no time to be flitting about the earth; I must cease from the activities proper to youth and begin to take on the dignities and gravities and inertia proper to that season of honorable senility, which is on its way and imminent—as indicated above.

"Yours is a great and memorable occasion, and as a son of Missouri I should hold it a high privilege to be there and share your just pride in the state's achievements, but I must deny myself the indulgence, while thanking you earnestly for the prized honor you have done me in asking me to be present. Very truly yours,
 S. L. CLEMENS."

FRUITLAND.

August 5.—Rain has come at last and we welcome it with glad hearts and rejoicing. Corn will be greatly helped by the rain. Peas are still being sowed. Plowing for wheat is in season and the farmers are very busy.

D. T. Sawyer, our postmaster, has been very sick but is reported better at this writing, also Mrs. R. L. Caldwell and Miss Luna Anderson are reported better.

J. C. Davis, after being confined to his bed for five weeks, is able to be about again.

Judge R. M. Woods has been sick, but is better.

Price Morton had a little runaway last week from A. P. Williams to Fruitland, but no damage was done.

James Sawyer shipped a fine bunch of hogs Saturday. The hogs were O. K. Jim has the name of being the best hog raiser in this community. The writer will vouch for this.

We understand that the picnic at Chas. Wilhelm's grove on the 3rd opened by selling beer and drinking until all were about full. The fun, as some call it, began at night. Oaths and clubs began to fly, which caused men to fall and flee for life. The picnic was ended with about six or eight knock downs and drag-outs.

Wm. Gordon was the champion wheat raiser in this neighborhood this year. His wheat tested 64 pounds to the bushel.

The Fruitland ball team played the Puchontas team Saturday. The score was 17 to 7 in favor of Fruitland.

Oh, yes, H. E. Davis and wife have a daughter.

The ice-cream supper at Dr. J. W. Hall's Friday night was a success. The proceeds were $84.

SCRIBBLER.

RANDLES.

August 5.—The drouth was broken Sunday morning by a fine rain lasting about five hours which was worth many dollars to farmers.

Hay crops are all harvested, baled and shedded. There was a better yield than was expected.

There is quite a lot of work going on in this vicinity now. Very nearly every contractor we meet is hunting for hands.

Lee Gammill went to Advance Sunday on a pleasure trip.

Rey. E. W. Gammill left Monday for Illinois, where he will spend a few weeks visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Ella McBride is quite sick this week with pneumonia.

RAMBLER.

Resolutions.

The following resolutions were adopted by Fruitland A. O. U. W. Lodge, No. 429:

Whereas, Our brother, Russell Caldwell, has been summoned from this lodge to the Grand Lodge above, on July 5, 1901, his brothers with whom he had labored, as an expression in some measure of their appreciation of his life and labors, offer these resolutions of respect.

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Caldwell this lodge has lost a brother whose daily walk was in harmony with its teachings, and an earnest exponent of Faith, Hope and Charity; his parents and brother a loving son and brother. Therefore, be it further

Resolved, That the members of this lodge extend to the sorrowing family their deepest, heartfelt sympathies in their affliction; that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family and be placed upon the lodge records and furnished our county paper for publication.

REASONS WHY I ADVERTISE

1. Because.
2. Because it pays.
3. Because all first-class Jewelers do.
4. Because I'm not too stingy to do so.
5. Because I'm not ashamed of my goods and work.
6. Because I have the largest stock of Jewelry in the county, and at reasonable prices.
7. Because it pays to let folks know what you've got.
8. Because I cater to the intelligent class, and they read the papers.
9. Because I can talk to more people through the papers than through my mouth.
10. Because a life time experience in the Jewelry business places me in a position to buy and sell cheaper than one not an exclusive Jeweler.

Yours for business,
